

Marital & Family Therapist

Exam Dates

Examination dates will be announced by the board. The schedule for the written examination will establish the time, place and other pertinent information or instructions.

Exam Fee

Persons determined by the board to have met all requirements to take the examination will be notified by the board and provided pertinent information about the examination fee. An applicant who fails to appear for the scheduled examination will forfeit the examination fee. The examination fee will not be refunded. Application for any required examination will be denied or deferred if the applicant lacks the required education or practice experience. The board will notify the applicant in writing of examination results.

Marital & Family Therapist Test Information

www.aamft.org